Join the EdTechWomen Breakfast Club

For women transforming SA education through technology.

Start 2018 with an exciting line up of speakers and topics at our February Cape Town breakfast.

Our keynote speaker, Nicole Biondi – Marketing and Comms Manager, Innovation Edge on the topic, “The extraordinary power of positive early life experiences”

Having been involved in marketing, communication and public relations for more than a decade, Nicole has developed the knack of being able to collect, craft and communicate engaging content at the right time; to the right audience; in a way that inspires sharing.

Her primary role is that of Head of Marketing and Communications for Innovation Edge – a grant maker and investor in early childhood development innovations. She is also a performance poet, voice artist, writer and host of murder mystery adventures, an Airbnb Experience Host and an avid runner.

SPECIAL FEATURE: Presentation from FNB Economist

FNB has developed research which links the current economic profile of our country and how that affects the customer base of private education institutions as well as insight into the influx of new corporate and fund backed entrants into the South African education sector.
