1186 Dormer Street, Queenswood, Pretoria

RSVP: 14 September 2018

Cost: R 2 350 pp

Early bird registration before 31 August 2018: R1 850 pp

Every day, teachers are faced with the challenges associated with the inclusion of children with specific or special needs in the classroom. Despite research showing the financial, educational and societal benefits of inclusion, the practical reality of inclusion is a daunting task!

Eduplex Training Institute, is hosting a practical workshop which aims to equip participants with basic knowledge and skills to successfully include learners with different educational needs within a mainstream classroom environment.

Participants will need to complete online interactive lessons and multiple choice questionnaires prior to attending a two day practical workshop at Eduplex. During the practical workshop, theoretical aspects presented in the online interactive lessons will be reviewed and teachers will engage and observe inclusive classroom activities.

This workshop is specifically designed for preschool and primary school teachers, principals, government officials and head of departments.
