

OAKLEY HOUSE TRAINING AND SUPPORT CENTRE

Over the past ten years, Oakley House School has become a leading independent school specialising in teaching and supporting children and adolescents with Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLD). These include Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, ADD/ADHD, Autism Spectrum Disorder, anxiety, social dysregulation, organisational challenges, etc.

As an extension of the services we offer, and in response to the need for specialist training in Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLD), we have opened the OAKLEY HOUSE TRAINING AND SUPPORT CENTRE.

Our aim is to share our in-depth knowledge, experience and expertise by providing a comprehensive programme of courses for teachers, student teachers, teaching assistants, facilitators and other professionals working within the field of Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLD).

OAKLEY HOUSE TRAINING AND SUPPORT CENTRE offers the following:

- 🌿 Specialist staff
- 🌿 Workshops, courses, training in the field of SpLD
- 🌿 Bespoke staff development programmes and workshops for schools
- 🌿 Facilitator courses
- 🌿 Parent support groups
- 🌿 Individual consultations

NEW ACCREDITED COURSE

OAKLEY HOUSE TRAINING AND SUPPORT CENTRE is running a SAQA accredited course (NQF Level 5, 10 credits) on 5-7 April and 3-5 October 2018. This course is also SACE accredited (15 credits).

- The course is suitable for education, training and development practitioners.
- The learning programme title is:
Develop inclusive learning programmes that enable participation of learners experiencing barriers to learning and development.
- The learning outcomes covered are:
 - Identify barriers to learning and development and explain their impact on the learning process.
 - Analyse how inclusive learning programmes enable participation of learners experiencing barriers to learning and development.
 - Develop an inclusive learning programme for a specific purpose.

- COURSE DETAILS -

5-7 April & 3-5 October 2018 | Oakley House High School | 08h30 – 16h30

Cost: R3000.00 (payment is made by EFT, kindly submit proof of payment to elawson@oakleyhouse.co.za)

Closing date for bookings: 27 March 2018